July/August 2013

From the Pastor's Desk

“For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:
a time to weep, and a time to laugh.”

Ecclesiastes, the Preacher 3:1, 4

Dear Friends,

When you need a good laugh, some people cruise the internet for good jokes. Others turn to one of the many comedy channels on cable TV or, maybe, seek out the friend who always seems to know how to have a good time. It's not often we pull the Bible off the shelf to look for hilarity. But, it's there! Beginning on July 14, I will preach on scriptures that are humorous or portray levity as a part of our spiritual journey. While the Bible is not a joke book, per se, it has much to say about the power of laughter, the potency of having fun. Some of the stories and sentiments that I'm thinking about include: Genesis 21:6: “Sarah said, God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me”

Paul's First Letter to the Corinthian Christians 4:10: “We are fools for the sake of Christ”

Psalms 126:2: “Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy”

To get us in the mood the Deacons request that you wear a hat, silly or solemn, to worship on Sunday, July 14. There will be additional requests for each of the following Sundays. These will be included in the bulletin the preceding Sunday as well as by e-mail. If you don't get the word, simply call the church. If your life journey is in a place of trial or darkness, please come anyway. There will be something for you, too. Jesus said, “Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.” It is our prayer that our July worship will provide God's comfort and strength to those of us who need it.

For a good time plan to join us in July! We'd love to have you and you don't want to miss out on a good time.

Summertime Blessings, Pastor Jan

KNOWING OUR NEIGHBORS

The second in a series on Religions of the World: Knowing Our Neighbors will take place at the Monday night study group on Monday, July 8. There is a potluck supper at 5:30pm. The study will begin promptly at 6:30pm. The evening's focus will be on Buddhism. The origins, beliefs and practices of Buddhism will be explored. Teens are welcome to come. Feel free to bring friends. Looking ahead: Monday, July 22, the focus for the study group will be Islam. Later the same week, the evening of Thursday, July 25 you are welcome to join a group of us who will be going to the mosque in West Springfield. The Islamic Society of Western MA (ISWMA) is hosting a public educational event on Ramadan. Ramadan has some of the same practices that Christians observe during Lent. It is a month long time of fasting and reflection with the purpose of becoming closer to God or Allah. The Islamic Society has a long tradition of offering gracious hospitality along with stimulating educational events for non-Muslims. This event will conclude with a meal. There will be folks from our congregation attending along with Rev. Jan Burdewik. You do not need to attend the Monday night study to join the trip to the mosque. If you have any questions about either our series or the evening on Ramadan feel free to speak with Jan.

Summer Worship

During July and August Worship Begins at 9:30 AM

After the service, members of the Diaconate will serve refreshments on the back lawn, weather permitting. There is no Sunday School during July and August but families are encouraged to attend worship together.

FROM THE DEACONS' BENCH

There are a lot of us that try to do many different things ourselves. I'm certainly guilty of attempting to be a "do-it-yourselfer" in just about any area possible. But, I've learned to reach out to other "do-it-yourselfers" when trying something I've never attempted or when I'm unsure about something. Asking advice from a trusted friend always helps. The same can be applied to our spirituality. Talking about "religion" with friends is not always a subject that is easy to initiate. So, the easiest place to get that second opinion is usually from one of our church family. Of course, our pastor is always a great source of spiritual advice, but many times another church member will come up with some of the best suggestions for guidance in a specific spiritual area. We are all given different talents by God, and I firmly believe that we should seek out those with different talents than our own when we are having a problem or concern. And, many times it is one of our church family that will be there to supply that answer. If you have any concern, please don't hesitate to ask Pastor Jan, one of the Deacons, or a member of our church family.

During July and August, Sunday service will start at 9:30am, and, weather permitting, the Deacons will serve fellowship on the back lawn. Hope that you all have a nice summer!

God Bless,
Mark Casey

The Kitchen Committee needs your help. Please make sure when using the dishwasher that it is cleaned out. Dirty dishwasher left in the machine produces a very foul odor in the kitchen. When outside parties are using the facility it is embarrassing when a strong odor is coming from the kitchen into Libby Hall. Also during the warm weather nothing should be left in the refrigerator that is not going to be consumed within 24 hours from the time of the event.

Thank you from the Kitchen Committee

Search Committee

Missions Committee

Our newest church members and Missions Committee would like to thank all who participated in the Hunger Banquet. We had a fun and informative evening. Jake, Joshua and Alex took the floor as master of ceremonies. We had speakers from the Open Pantry, Springfield Rescue Mission and Indian Orchard Survival Center. There are brochures on the missions table in Libby Hall from the speakers and also from the Western Mass Food Bank. Please feel free to take home any material that you find interesting and share with your friends and neighbors. Don't forget that we will continue to collect food items throughout the summer to be delivered to the Survival Center.

Our summer project is for the Springfield Rescue Mission. We will be collecting school supplies over the summer and these will be delivered before school starts in late August. Continuing to look forward, we will be participating in the CROP walk on October 20, 2013. Get ready to help stamp out hunger and walk with our neighboring churches.

Dear Federated Community Church,

I would like to thank you for the scholarship I recently received from the church. I will be attending the College of Saint Rose in Albany, NY and this scholarship will help me to achieve my goal of becoming a Speech Language Pathologist. Thank you so much for your generosity.

Sincerely, Erin Lee
