Pentecost 2013

When the day of Pentecost had come, they, the Jesus people, were all together in one place. When suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a mighty wind. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit."

The Acts of the Apostles 2:1-2

SHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!! It's a surprise and..... YOU'RE INVITED!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Let's be clear, this Pentecost, described in Acts 2, wasn't a surprise...or was it? These folks - the Jesus people as they were called - had been told by Jesus himself that they were going to be his presence in the world after he was gone in body. Although preposterous, he also told them that they would receive the power of his spirit - -the Spirit of the Risen Christ - the Holy Spirit - that would equip and guide them. To top it all off he told them that this promise stretched through eternity! That is, there would always be a group of Jesus people, the Body of Christ, which we call the church. Even after they were gone there would be people after them who would say, "Yes!" to Jesus, who would receive his Spirit. Even though they were told ahead of time it's pretty unbelievable, even preposterous. So, maybe it was a surprise.

To me it still is a surprise, unbelievable even, that God chooses me, you, us to be his hands and feet, eyes and ears, heart and voice here on earth. If that weren't enough we receive his Spirit. Those who say, "Yes!" to this gift are the Church, then, now and always.

On Confirmation Sunday, May19, three of our teenagers will publically say, " Yes! " to being counted among the Jesus people. They will confirm the faith and commitment that their parents made for at their baptism. You're invited. Plan to wear red, the color that symbolizes the Holy Spirit among Christians. There are a few other requests.

Now to the surprise that I was talking about. You're invited to write a note to the confirmands. Specifically, one note which we will duplicate. For this reason please use only one side of piece of paper or a card. Handwritten is fine. In that note share a wish, a blessing, a bit of faith wisdom, a memory, whatever you would like to share. Please give these to me directly or leave them for me at the church office by Sunday, May 12. This is the part that I'd like to keep a secret. If you are not able to be with us in body we'd welcome your notes. We will give these to the confirmands at the Service of Confirmation. We hope that you can join us for this joyous day.

With Excitement,

Rev. Dr. Jan Burdewik

PS If you speak another language, even minimally, kindly let me know.

*P*ARISH NOTES

To our church family,

The past few months would have been so much harder to deal with if we did not have all of you. The support through prayer, visits, messages, cards, phone calls and of course food, have been such a comfort to us. I kept thinking about those who go through such an ordeal alone. We are fortunate to have the love of our family and friends to support us in this time of our greatest need. We thank you all for the love and support we have received. We all miss Ellen every day. The simplest thing reminds us of her. Prior to her death she had been advising me on what our young adults need from our church. She wanted our church to be a place of social gathering for young people. She told me that she wanted us to plan trips to a museum, camping, and multicultural events through our church. We are going to honor her by doing just that. She was a dynamic, talented young woman, full of ideas. Through the coming months and years, we know that you will be right by our sides, supporting us and helping us through. Thank you all again.

Love, hugs and kisses to you all,

Karen, Carl, Roslind, Janet, Susanna, Alex, David and all of Ellen's family XXXXOOOO

On Sunday May 26th we will be having a Celebration of Remembrance during morning worship. You will have an opportunity to bring a flower, memento or picture of a loved one to place on the communion table. Please feel free to join us for this meaningful service.

May God's grace be with you all.

Deacon Mary Howell

The projects which the Circle would be willing to undertake would be such as: Interior and exterior Step Repair; Interior Painting; Shed Construction; Tornado & Storm Clean-up; Porch Repair and Construction; Wheelchair ramp construction.
